

Steve Raybine

Virtuosic Vibraphonist Jazz Musician

Steve Raybine is a nationally known virtuoso vibraphonist who has earned a reputation for his mesmerizing live performances and compelling original contemporary jazz compositions.

Raybine's unique and refreshing musical sound and style is captivating jazz audiences throughout the United States and Europe.

Raybine spent eight years as a member of the popular group AURACLE (which he co-founded), and has since freelanced in numerous settings with Dizzy Gillespie, Dave Brubeck, Rick Braun and others.

The Wisconsin bred, Omaha-based composer and performer continues his inspiring quest with his most infectious, spirited and sophisticated tunes yet on Cool Vibes.

Raybine's first three independent full-length albums on his label BAD KAT Records, have received global radio spins and acclaim.
